

Biological Men Should Not Use Girls' Restrooms and Locker Rooms or Compete in Girls' Sports

Allowing Biological Men in Women's Private Spaces Poses Sexual Assault Risks and Makes Female Athletes Feel Unsafe

There have been numerous instances where biological males have sexually assaulted and harassed biological women in women's bathrooms.

- "Victim of school bathroom sexual assault sues Va. School district." [Washington Post]
- "Oklahoma transgender student charged with assaulting female high school classmates in bathroom." [Fox News]
- "Teenage girl was 'terrified' in locker room with naked transgender woman." [Washington Examiner]

Students across the country have pushed back on policies allowing boys in girl's bathrooms.

- "Loudoun County students stage walkout to protest transgender bathroom policy." [New York Post]
- A California female high school student denounced her school district for allowing biological male students to use girls' bathroom. [Fox News]
- "Pennsylvania school district reverses trans bathroom policy weeks after student walkout." [Fox News]

Males Have a Competitive Advantage over Females

According to researchers, "Without the sex division, females would have little chance of winning because males are faster, stronger, and have greater endurance capacity." [National Library of Medicine]

- "In 2017 alone, well over 5,000 males, including some under 18 years old, ran 400-meter times that were faster than the personal bests of U.S. Olympic gold medalists Sanya Richards-Ross and Allyson Felix." [Alliance Defending Freedom]
- "Women athletes are known to be less strong and powerful than equally trained men" typically with only 40 to 75% of the muscle strength of men. [National Library of Medicine]

- Almost 70% of transitioning adults have not undergone any hormone treatments or surgeries. [Washington Post-KFF survey] Men who have undergone hormone treatment typically only lose approximately 5% of strength after 12 months of testosterone suppression treatment. [National Library of Medicine]
- Men who have undergone hormone treatment typically only lose approximately 5% of strength after 12 months of testosterone suppression treatment. [National Library of Medicine]

Men in Women's Sports Puts Women at Risk of Injury

There have been several instances in all levels of sports where biological men playing in a female-only league have injured female players.

- In Massachusetts, a biological six foot tall male with facial hair, played for the KIPP Academy girls' basketball team. During a game he injured multiple players, causing the opposing team to forfeit. [Inside Lowell]
- A biological male in North Carolina spiked a volleyball at high school female athlete's head during a game leading to season ending injury. [ABC13 News]
- In Massachusetts, a high school girls' field hockey player lost teeth, after being injured by shot from male opponent. [Riley Gaines post on X]

Men in Women's Sports Strips Women of Opportunities

Transgender athletes have caused countless women to lose out on championships, scholarships, and records. [Forbes]

- Transgender women competitors took 15 state championships away from female track athletes in Connecticut over several years. [New York Post]